Date Issued: February 10, 2026

Member: J. Thompson

Mock Decision – For Educational/Formatting Purposes Only

ORDER UNDER SECTIONS 69 AND 83

Residential Tenancies Act, 2006

Application

1. The Landlord applied to terminate the tenancy and evict the Tenant for non-payment of rent.
 2. The application is supported by a Notice to End Tenancy Early for Non-payment of Rent (N4) served on December 1, 2025.

Hearing

3. The hearing was conducted by videoconference on February 3, 2026.
 4. Both the Landlord and Tenant attended and provided sworn testimony.

Issues

5. Whether rent arrears exist;
 6. Whether the N4 complies with the Act;
 7. Whether eviction is appropriate, considering Section 83 and any hardship.

Evidence

Landlord

8. The tenancy agreement dated March 1, 2024 was filed as Exhibit 1.
9. The Landlord submitted a rent ledger (Exhibit 2) showing arrears for October 2025 through January 2026, totaling $6,400.00.

10. The N4 notice dated December 1, 2025 was filed as Exhibit 3.
11. A certificate of service was filed as Exhibit 4.
12. The Landlord testified that no partial payments were made during the period of arrears.

Tenant

13. The Tenant admitted arrears but requested relief, citing temporary employment loss.
14. The Tenant submitted a Record of Employment (Exhibit A) showing layoff from October 15, 2025 to January 15, 2026.
15. The Tenant produced a draft repayment plan (Exhibit B) proposing $200 per month.
16. Under cross-examination, the Tenant acknowledged that the Landlord had provided proper notice and that arrears remain substantial.

Findings of Fact

17. The arrears are proven on a balance of probabilities.
18. The N4 notice is valid and complies with the Act.
19. The Tenant's temporary employment loss is noted, but the arrears are substantial and ongoing.
20. The repayment plan of $200/month is insufficient to address $6,400 in arrears within a reasonable timeframe.

Section 83 Consideration

21. The Board must consider all circumstances, including hardship.
22. While the Tenant experienced temporary financial difficulty, the length of arrears and insufficient repayment plan create undue prejudice to the Landlord.
23. I find that conditional relief would not adequately protect the Landlord's interests.

Order

24. The tenancy shall terminate on March 31, 2026.
25. The Landlord may file this order with the Sheriff and proceed with eviction without further notice.
26. Rent arrears remain payable as a civil debt; the Landlord may pursue collection through appropriate channels.
